customers." was in a preliminary draft made before more complete information was obtained from the Applicant, subsequently lined through for deletion, and inadvertently included in the Declaration as submitted.

4. As presently known and as advised by Applicant, the "system" referenced with respect to the Dec. 26, 2000 time frame in the Mungavan Declaration was actually a subsystem being developed by Applicant, but which was not incorporated into the final product, which is the subject of the above-identified patent application.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
